In 2018-2019, The Civil War Round Table of New York will celebrate its 68th Season, making it one of the oldest Round Tables dedicated to the study of America's Civil War.

The club meets once a month from September to June. Meetings are held in New York City at a convenient midtown location, The 3 West Club, at 3 West 51st Street in Manhattan.

Our Expert Speakers, Authors and Historians address a wide variety of Civil War related topics, often from their published material. Also, there are frequent updates about preservation strategies of battlefields and other sites.

Recent past speakers have included "Civil War Legends" like Ed Bearss, James I. "Bud" Robertson, Jr., James McPherson, Harold Holzer, Allen Guelzo, William C. "Jack" Davis, and Frank O'Reilly among others.

Our January meeting is Lee/Jackson Night, when a speaker discusses these generals or a related Southern topic.

The Barondess/Lincoln Award is presented each February to any person or institution for contributing to the greater appreciation of the life and work of Abraham Lincoln. Named in memory of Benjamin Barondess, a CWRTNY founding member, the award has been presented since 1962.

The Fletcher Pratt Literary Award is presented in May to the author or editor of the best non-fiction book about the Civil War published during the previous calendar year. Named in memory of Fletcher Pratt, journalist, author, and CWRTNY charter member, the award has been presented annually since 1956.

The Bell I. Wiley Award honors the non-literary and/or the artistic talents of those who have contributed to a greater understanding and preservation of any aspect of the Civil War.

The James I. Robertson Young Reader Award acknowledges significant literary contributions, fiction or non-fiction, about the Civil War for elementary and high school students and has been named for the renowned historian.

The Round Table conducts an annual trip to a Civil War battlefield or related historical site. Battlefield Tours have been made to Gettysburg, Appomatox, Petersburg, the Shenandoah Valley, Shiloh, Richmond, Vicksburg, and other famous locations.

If you love history...if you share our passion and interest in the American Civil War and its heritage...
